

BIOGRAPHY

Sujin Chan-Allen

Chief Legal Adviser, Director Legal Office

Sujin Chan-Allen assumed the role of Chief Legal Adviser, NATO Communications and Information Agency, on 1 June 2021.

In her role, Chan-Allen advises the General Manager and the Agency Supervisory Board on legal and policy matters, spanning the entire operational and international arena. Chan-Allen is a member of the Executive Management Board and the Contracts Award Board.

Prior to joining NATO, she was an international lawyer from 2016 to 2021, in progressively senior roles at the global law firms of Shearman & Sterling and Cleary Gottlieb, based in Brussels, Belgium. During this time, she advised American and European multinational companies in the defence, technology and media sectors. Chan-Allen also held the position of Global Head of Competition at Dassault Systèmes, Paris, on secondment, managing legal projects in cross-border mergers and contract issues in the technology and software domains

Prior to private law practice, from 2010 to 2015, Chan-Allen served as Counsel within the Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs at the Trade Law Bureau and Treaty Law Bureau. She conducted litigation before the World Trade Organization (WTO) on behalf of Canada and advised on the Comprehensive Trade and Economic Agreement between Canada and the European Union. Chan-Allen also served within the Treaty Law Bureau, advising on international law and treaty interpretation with respect to bilateral and multilateral treaties.

Before joining the Canadian federal government, Chan-Allen served as Counsel at a regulatory commission in Ontario, Canada from 2006 to 2010, where she was responsible for litigation before an administrative tribunal and appellate courts and advice to the Registrar on dispute settlement, procurement and contracts.

From 2003 to 2005, she spent several years managing international programmes at a humanitarian organization as part of the International Campaign to Ban Landmines and community not-for-profit programmes in Ottawa, Canada.

Chan-Allen specializes in international law in both the public and private sectors, with particular experience in multilateral treaties, European Union law, dispute resolution, commercial agreements, foreign investment and global antitrust.

Chan-Allen is a Barrister and Solicitor at the Law Society of Ontario and a Solicitor with the Law Society of England and Wales. She holds a Master of Laws degree (LLM) specializing in public international law from the University of Toronto and an LLM in European Union competition law and economics, from the Brussels School of Competition. She received her Bachelor of Laws degree (LLB) from the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Her native language is English and she is fluent in French. She currently lives in Brussels.

Brussels, Belgium
Tel: +32 2 707 8229
email: Sujin.Chan-Allen@ncia.nato.int

NATO Communications and Information Agency
Agence OTAN d'information et de communication

Boulevard Leopold III
1110 Brussels, Belgium
www.ncia.nato.int